WEDNESDAY, MAY 4.

ONE glorious thing. This country has other things to do now than to listen to Mr. W. Jennings Bryan and his platitudes and commonplace phrases.

THE NEW MEXICAN will in the future publish the full afternoon Associated Press report, thus giving its readers the benefit of the most authentic and explicit war news.

WITHIN another 12 months the United States of America will be the second naval power on earth. And then probably our European friends will heed when this country says anything.

SPAIN's alleged hurry to fight and oppose its army and navy to those of the United States is characterized by great deliberation and dignity. But Spain always was haughty and imperial.

LATER reports show that the victory by Commodore Dewey's squadron over the Spanish squadron in Manila harbor was most decisive and complete and that the American loss was not great Glory to Dewey and his gallant officers

THE NEW MEXICAN at great additional expense has procured a largely increased and most reliable news from the seat of war and from all parts of the country daily in attractive and readable form. This paper believes in giving the news to its readers and not in giving them a lot of sensational and empty head lines that fill space, but are worthless to the reader as far as information is concerned. That's the kind of a paper the NEW were effected. MEXICAN is.

They argue that the fighting of such a war will, of a necessity, break in upon the international insolation of the United States. The possession of a large navy will be an incentive to the building of a great mercantile fleet and the extension of foreign trade. Since the markets of the world cannot be controlled under a protection policy, the manufacturers and shipping interests will demand free trade and in that demand will be successful. One of these anti-American journals says:

"Even under the partial abandonment of our commercial isolation brought about by what is called the Wilson tariff, our manufacturers in many kinds of products discovered that in upholding high protection they had injured their the home markets was less to their advantage than a fair field and no favors in the markets of the world."

The writer of that sentence has a memory remarkable for its forgetting qualities. The unanimous opinions of the manufacturers, as expressed at the last presidential election, did not indicate that any such discovery had been made under the Wilson tariff, and those this fare without grumbling. The Democrat is the only paper in New Mexico that ridicules the men who are enlisting in the volunteer army of the United States. The owner is a kid glove, foreign born capitalist and he has no sympathy with the United States, or friendship for the men who are enlisting to defend the Union. The mobilization of federal troops in

The mobilization of federal troops in the south is making the star spangled banner quite a familiar object there; another grand victory. You can always depend on the American navy. Its long and honorable record proves this assertion fully.

The New Mexican's flag fund is growing and growing. The New Mexican mean by the last clause of the above? If it is intended as an intimation of the First regiment of United States volunteer cavalry will have the finest flag in the grand volunteer army of the United States in the present war with spain and will fight under it, where every occasion will require, with valor, perseverance and success. There can be no doubt about this and there exists no doubt thereof in the minds of well informed persons.

The mobilization of federal troops in the star spangled banner quite a familiar object there; another good thing for the country.

New Mexican.

What does the editor of the New Mexican is one that the people of the south need as an intimation that the people of the south need a constant ocular reminder of the fact that they are living under, and owe allegiance to the stars and stripes, it is unworthy of any man born and raised to water in irrigating ditches. There will be a good crop of apples and pears. No rain during the week. The highest temperature was 88 and the lowest 42. Total precipitation, trace.

Las Cruces—C. E. Mead—The week on the whole has been rather windy, a very low barometer prevailing since the 28th. Crops look well; wheat 10 or 12 inches high, and there is a high, and there is an abundance of water in irrigating ditches. There will be a good crop of apples and pears. No rain during the week. The highest temperature was 90 and the lowest 35.

Once he ran his rifle through a crack in the wall and aimed at Hubbell, and had not one of the deputies discovered it in the nick of time and fired at him and hailed to the sheriff, another victim would surely The manner in which theorists cling have been added to Imbert's list of murworthless is almost beyond comprehension. This peculiarity of human nature was never more clearly defined than at this time. The war with Spain has not yet approached the serious stage, peace is an indefinite quantity, and yet the free trade papers in the country are hadding hopes of the everlasting confusion of the protectionists as a result of the conflict.

They argue that the lighting of such a large try for a better shot at the sheriff, Hubbell instantly seized the opportunity, fired a shot at 30 paces striking the uxorcide in the middle of the forehead, killing him instantly. Everything considered, it was a meritorious act, which reflects great credit on the highest peace for officer of Bernalillo county, who will be renominated for sheriff without opposition, and re-elected by an increased vote over his handsome majority of two years ago. He is the kind of a man we all want in that office, and the people all want in that office, and the people will see that he stays there.—Albuquer-
